PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

Quitor & Tulor

An excursion connecting the Pukará de Quitor with Tulor, offering insight into two distinct aspects of the oasis's heritage. The visit takes place along designated open paths; entry into restricted structures is not included.

Your itinerary

Context of the oasis

The guide explains the location of these settlements in relation to water channels and ancient routes. The visit aims to provide an understanding of the inhabited landscape, going beyond the mere observation of isolated ruins.

Pukará de Quitor

We explore the authorized areas and discuss the defensive function of the site. Optional climbs may be considered in consultation with the group; however, access to closed-off areas is not guaranteed.

Tulor

We continue to the site and its designated interpretive areas. We examine the construction methods and the layout of the settlement, while strictly adhering to the established paths and conservation guidelines.
